PRESS RELEASE

BNP Paribas Securities Services appoints Paul Daly as Head of Distribution Products and Solutions

BNP Paribas Securities Services has appointed Paul Daly as Head of Distribution Products and Solutions.

In this role, Paul will be responsible for developing and promoting fund distribution products to the benefit of institutional fund buyers and fund promoters. He will build on the bank's innovative offering in this area. Last year, BNP Paribas Securities Services launched the Fund@ccess service offering, powered by Allfunds. Paul will also drive the development of the bank's transfer agency solutions.

Paul Daly, head of distribution products and solutions at BNP Paribas Securities Services, said: "Digital technologies are revolutionising the fund distribution space. We, at BNP Paribas Securities Services, want to bring the power of digital to our clients, developing next generation fund analytics services and maximising operational efficiency for faster settlement and seamless post-trade processes. Our ambition is to build a new range of fund distribution services enabling clients to seize investment opportunities and enhance the monitoring of their operations."

Paul has more than 30 years' experience in the securities services industry. He was previously head of territory for Ireland at BNP Paribas Securities Services. Based in Dublin, Paul will report to Arnaud Claudon, head of the asset managers and owners and Emma Crabtree, head of EMEA sales for asset managers, asset owners and alternatives.
