BNP Paribas Securities Services appoints new Head of Client Development in Southeast Asia

BNP Paribas Securities Services, a premier global bank, announces today the appointment of Jen-Thai Ewe as Head of Client Development in Southeast Asia.

Based in Singapore, Jen-Thai is responsible for Securities Services sales, client relationship management and client services across Southeast Asia.

Jen-Thai will drive the bank's expansion plans in the securities services industry – including global custody, fund administration and other post-trade services - across all client segments (asset managers, asset owners, financial intermediaries and alternative fund managers). Jen-Thai brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to BNP Paribas Securities Services from his 20 years of experience working with clients across multiple sectors. His prior experience includes senior client management, client solutions and operations roles at HSBC since 2018 and State Street where he worked for 11 years.

Diana Senanayake, Head of Securities Services Southeast Asia, said: "Jen-Thai's strong connections to the market and experience across multiple client segments as well as his in-depth knowledge of securities services operations will be invaluable to his new role where he will continue to grow our successful business across Southeast Asia."
