PRESS RELEASE

BNP Paribas Securities Services appoints new head of Southeast Asia

BNP Paribas Securities Services has appointed Luc Renard as Head of Securities Services for Southeast Asia with immediate effect.

In this role, Luc will continue to build on the success of this important commercial and operational hub and will continue to deepen relationships with new and existing clients.

Luc has in-depth knowledge of the business and market across the Asia Pacific region having worked for BNP Paribas Securities Services for 20 years, of which the past 12 years have been in Singapore, Australia and Hong Kong in a variety of regional clearing, custody and digital transformation roles.

Franck Dubois, Head of Asia Pacific at BNP Paribas Securities Services, said: "I'm delighted to announce Luc's appointment at the helm of our Southeast Asia commercial and operational hub. It's a fast-growing business, serving local and international clients in a region alive with financial technology innovation. Under Luc's leadership, we look forward to continuing to invest and grow in this exciting region."

Luc is based in Singapore. He will report to Franck Dubois hierarchically and functionally to Joris Dierckx, Regional Head for Southeast Asia.

Luc graduated with a Master of Business Administration specialising in Asset Management from the PSB Paris School of Business. He also has a Master's degree in Market Finance from the University of Paris-Sorbonne.
