BNP Paribas Securities Services announces senior Financial Institutions & Corporates client line appointments

BNP Paribas Securities Services announced today the appointment of Camille Papillard as Head of Financial Intermediaries and Corporates (FI&C) EMEA and Stanislas Beneteau as Head of FI&C Americas.

Camille Papillard will be responsible for the go-to-market strategy, products and solutions for all FI&C clients in EMEA. Camille, who was previously head of clearing and settlement products and custody sell-side solutions, will report to Bruno Campenon, Head of the FI&C Client Line.

Stanislas Beneteau will be responsible for continuing the successful build-out of the bank's FI&C franchise in the Americas, including the development of the bank's footprint in Latin America. Stanislas, who was previously head of FI&C EMEA, will report locally to Dennis Bon, Head of Securities Services Americas and hierarchically to Bruno Campenon.

Bruno Campenon, Head of the Financial Institutions and Corporates Client Line, at BNP Paribas Securities Services, said: "I'm delighted to announce these two regional appointments which position us well for the continuing growth of our business. The FI&C client line is experiencing strong momentum, driven by client demand for the connectivity our global network provides and for our many value-added services, including our cash management, liquidity and triparty collateral management services."
