MEDIA RELEASE

BNP Paribas Securities Services appoints new head of Australia and New Zealand

BNP Paribas Securities Services has appointed Daniel Cheever as Head of Securities Services for Australia and New Zealand with immediate effect.

In this role, Daniel will continue to build on the success of the bank's securities services business in the region and to support its strong institutional client base with services to help them adapt to technology and regulatory change.

Daniel joins from State Street where he has held several senior roles and was most recently Head of Global Services for Australia. He has 24 years of industry experience, bringing deep operational knowledge and insights to the role.

Daniel is based in Sydney and reports to Franck Dubois, Head of Securities Services Asia Pacific at BNP Paribas, and Karine Delvallée, CEO of BNP Paribas Australia and New Zealand.

Franck Dubois, Head of Securities Services Asia Pacific at BNP Paribas, said: "I'm delighted to announce Daniel's appointment to lead us into our next phase of growth. Australia and New Zealand are very strong and important markets for BNP Paribas. We are leading providers to the local superannuation and asset management industry and have been rapidly growing our banks and brokers client base. This is an exciting period as we are at the forefront of several exciting blockchain and data custodian innovations being led from Australia."

Daniel graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce and a Bachelor of Engineering from The University of Sydney.
