Foreword

The intragroup merger of BNP Paribas Securities Services SCA with its parent company BNP Paribas SA took place on 1 October 2022. Whilst Securities Services products and services remain unchanged as a result of the merger, BNP Paribas Securities Services SCA ceased to exist as a distinct legal entity. Therefore, the new legal entity facing our partners from the merger date is BNP Paribas SA. From this date, our partners should use the corporate information of BNP Paribas SA, in lieu of those of BNP Paribas Securities Services, for identification purposes.

This document includes the new corporate information and identification to use from 1 October 2022 along with guidelines on how to use it.

HOW TO USE THIS DOCUMENT

1. One page per market

Each market information is contained in a single page, which allows you to select only the market(s) where Securities Services provides services to you and to find out more easily the information that needs to be amended in your systems.

If a country where we operate is not listed in the document, this means that its corporate information and identification remain unchanged.

You can click directly on the desired market in the page of contents and you will automatically be taken to the corresponding country page. By clicking on the BNP Paribas logo at the top of each country page, you will return to the table of contents.

2. Head Office and Local Branch information per market

For each country, the information is divided into two sections:

- Head Office Information: this is common to all countries and is repeated in each market page. BNP Paribas SA (head office) is always your legal counterparty irrespective of the market in which we operate (as a branch of BNP Paribas SA).

- Local Branch information: this is the specific local information relevant to a given market.

3. Value to be used following the merger

In each table, we show the information about BNP Paribas SA to be used under the “Value to be used after the merger” column. The current information about BNP Paribas Securities Services is shown in the first column for reference only.

New values from 1 October 2022 are highlighted with a green background.

Values which remain unchanged following the merger are not highlighted (no coloured background) and are for information only.

Should you require information, please reach your usual contact.
